

Corporate VP of Operations

Location

Based in Lansing, MI

Overview qualifications

Confidential candidate preferred to have experience with electrical consumer products companies such as Black and Decker, Stanley, Acuity, Cooper, Cree, Phillips, Rabb, Tek, Gen Brands, HON, Steel Case, Nokia, Samsung, New Tone, Flextronics and others of such caliber. MUST be experienced in Supply Chain operations, Manufacturing processes, Electronics new product development and Quality Assurance.

Position Summary

- Position manages corporate functions of Supply Chain to include forecasting, demand planning, procurement, quality assurance, inventory planning and management, distribution and China operations for all of above. Position has 5-8 direct reports, with total domestic staff of 200 employees and 60 international employees.
- Position has weighted functions of operations functional management-15%, strategic planning-10%, supply chain factory management -15%. New electrical product development-15%, China office-10%, legal and admin-10%, customer service-10% personnel management, 10% and facilities management, 5%.

Qualifications

Minimum of 10 years engineering and electrical products operations management. College degree (BS degree in engineering in electronics, mechanical or chemical preferred) and any certifications in quality, engineering, forecasting, procurement, demand planning and lean manufacturing techniques.

Compensation package

Base salary compensation targeted in the $180-200k with normal bonus @ 15, 25, 35 %. Relocation expenses will be negotiated as needed and expected.